

Memorabilia and Appraisal Show

Saturday, August 20th

9:00 A.M. -1:00 P.M.

AGRICULTURAL HALL, SOUTH MOUNTAIN FAIR

Bring your valuables, collectibles, and any items that have personal historic significance and join the Memorabilia and Appraisal Event Saturday, August 20th, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Agricultural Hall at the South Mountain Fair.

No cost for admission to the event! (Please enter the front entrance of the Agricultural Hall to avoid paying the fair admission). Have your item appraised by a number of appraisers from around the region! Local history and heritage can be remembered through sharing-this is the time to take part in documenting community history! You can bring a special historical article or come just to hear the stories of others: you never know what you might see and learn!

Appraisers:

Kim Murray, HelpDownsizing.com, specializing in furniture, china and glass

Mike Cleary, Cleary Construction, specializing in English fine furniture

Bruce Toshack and Krista McCoy, Toshack's Toy Land, specializing in toys and bears

Tom Grossman, Ottawa Coin and Stamp, specializing in old money, gold, silver and stamps
